

All About Discovery!TM
 Center for Community Analysis
 cca.nmsu.edu
 575-646-3352

All About Discovery!TM
 Center for Community Analysis
 cca.nmsu.edu
 575-646-3352

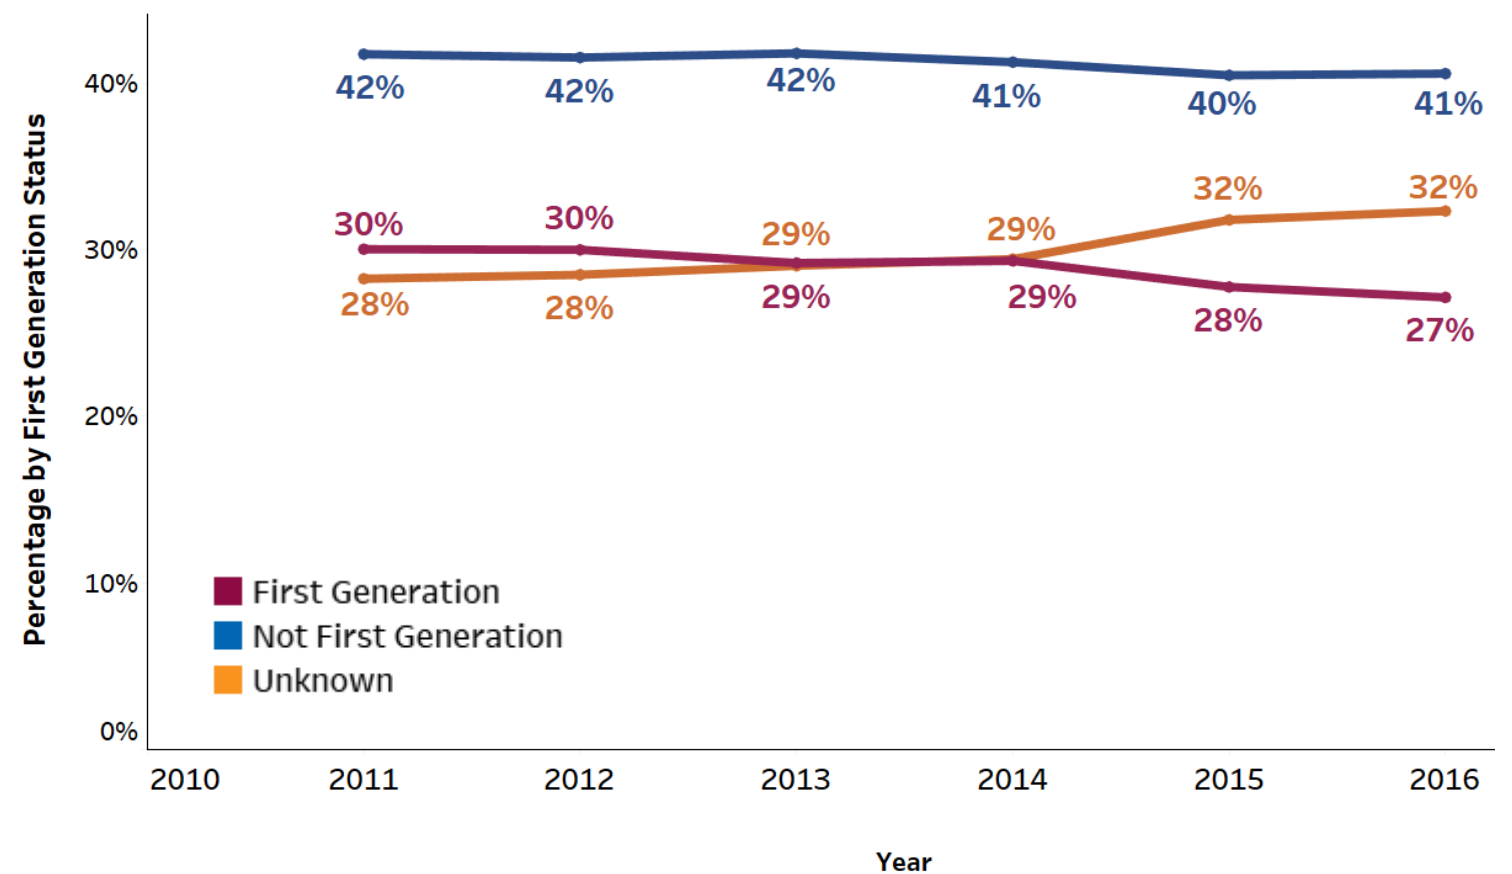

Access to Higher Education: New Mexico State University- Las Cruces

Number of Las Cruces Public High School Graduates Enrolled as First-Time Freshmen, New Mexico State University, Fall 2013 to Fall 2017

Note: Data represents LCPS senior graduating class students. Source: New Mexico State University Office of Institutional Analysis

Undergraduates by First Generation Status, Fall 2011 to Fall 2016
 New Mexico State University, Las Cruces

Note: Based on FAFSA reporting. Source: New Mexico State University Office of Institutional Analysis

Fall 2012 NMSU Las Cruces Fall 2016

Hispanic/Latino Enrollment

50.8% Undergraduates 55.5%
 32.0% Graduates 34.5%

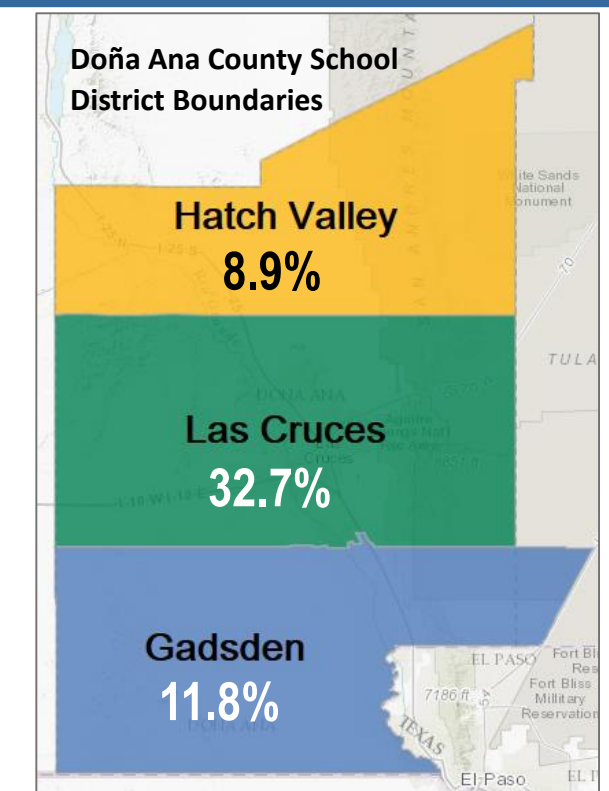

Other Minority Enrollment

7.9% Undergraduates 8.2%
 7.8% Graduates 8.4%

Source: New Mexico State University Office of Institutional Analysis

Educational Attainment for Doña Ana County Residents Living Within School District Boundaries

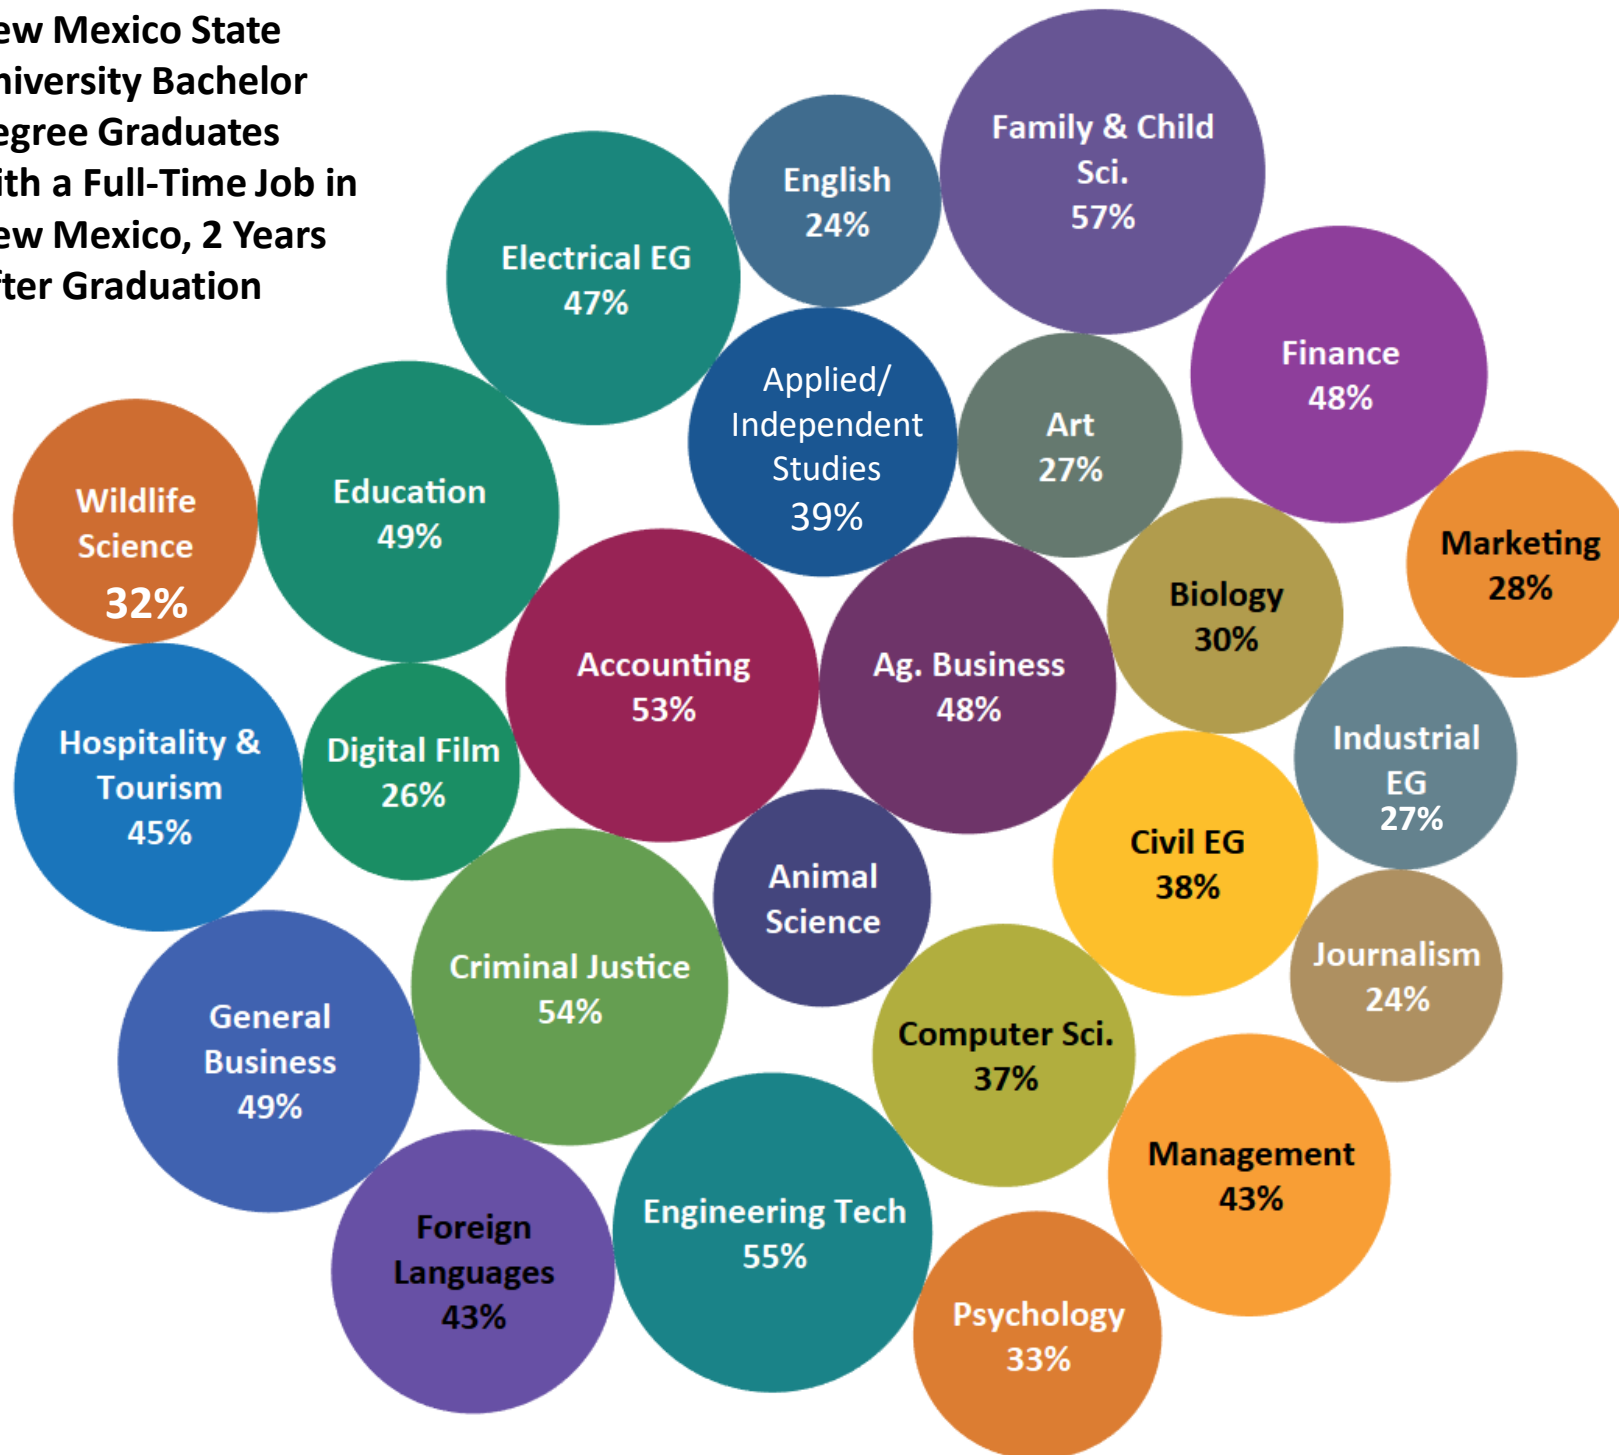

Residents with a Bachelor's Degree or Higher

Source: NCES MapED Story Maps/ Census Bureau American Community Survey 2010-14, New Mexico Community Data Collaborative

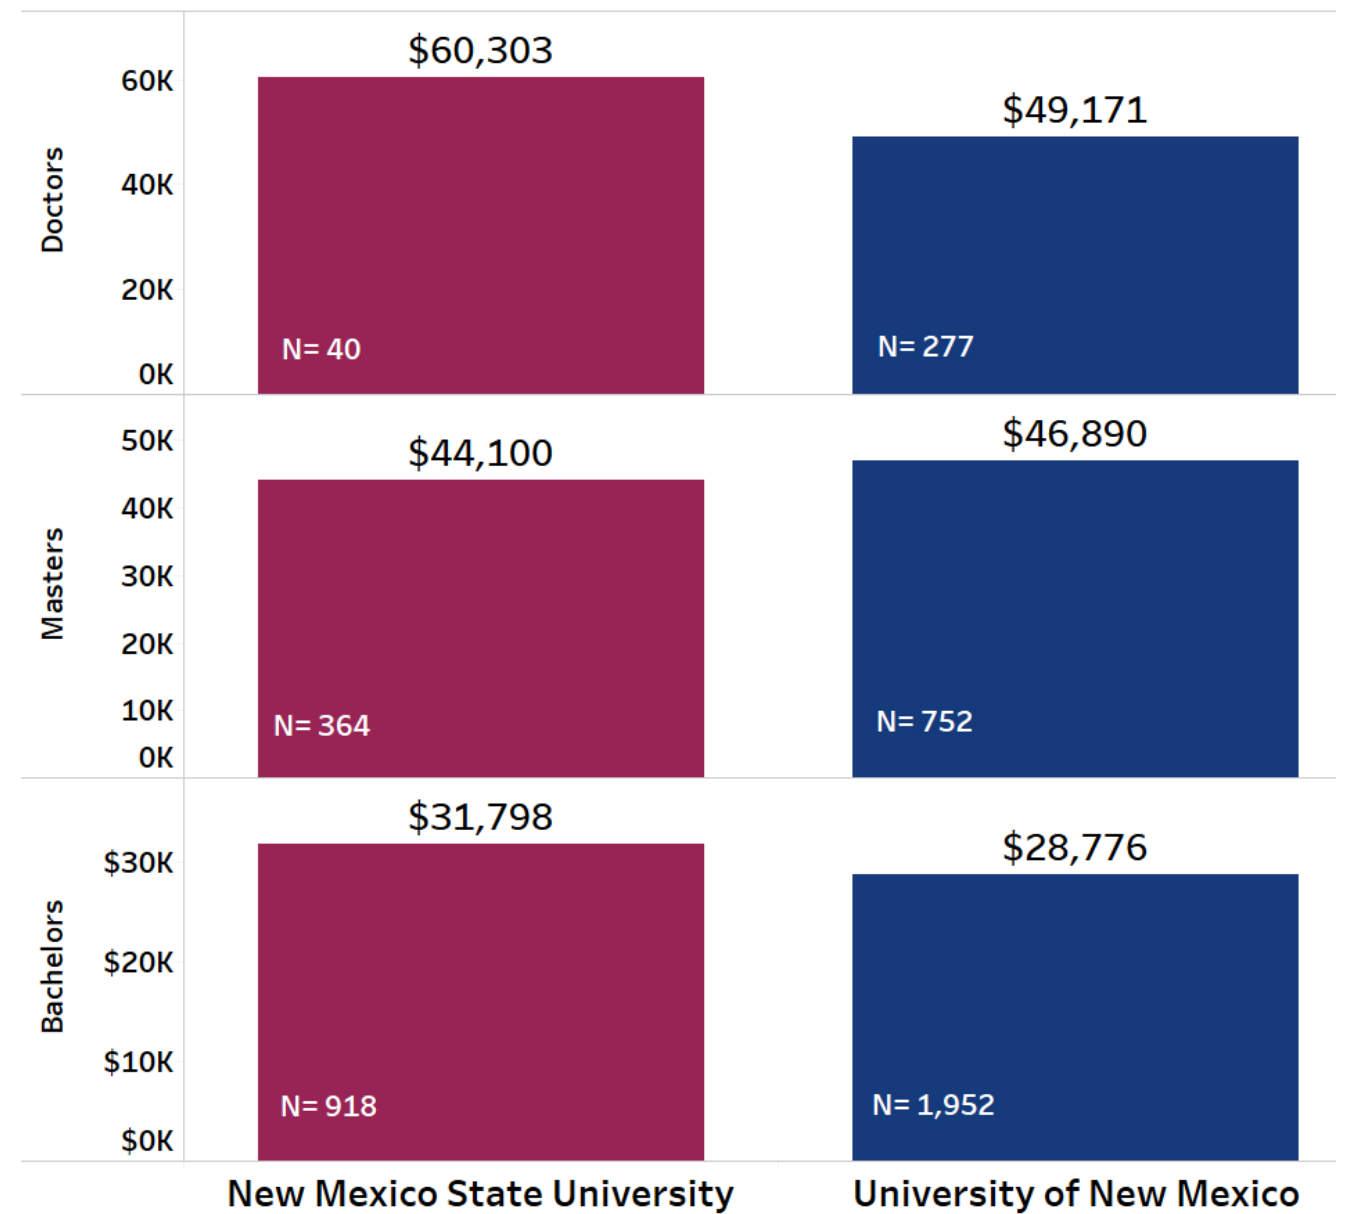

Career Readiness in Doña Ana County

Percentage 2012-2013
 New Mexico State
 University Bachelor
 Degree Graduates with a Full-Time Job in
 New Mexico, 2 Years
 After Graduation

Note: Data represents degree/program of study.

Average Median Salary and Number of Graduates Working Full-Time in New Mexico 1 Year After Graduation by Award Level, 2013- 2014, NMSU Main Campus Graduates

44% of students graduating with an associates degree from Doña Ana Community College are working full time within 2 years of graduation, 2012-2013 graduates

$25,194 average median salary of students graduating with an associates degree from Doña Ana Community College within 2 years of graduation, 2012-2013 graduates